General Comments:

Andrew was not only engaged at Saint Bernard Mission School, but also Andrew immersed himself into the cultural context of the school and modeled an emerging approach to culturally responsive learning and teaching. Andrew's steady, sometimes quiet, reserve was more than appropriate for SBMS. He was often found engaging students on the playground via games of tag, and sitting with the youngest of the children reading a story. I appreciate Andrew's efforts to visit and partner with SBMS multiple times this semester!
